 FFT Shared Readers for Success for All Phonics

 Free for parents and children to read at home

We hope you find all the resources on our growing Parent Portal useful to support your child's phonics and early reading.

The materials are designed to support the learning your child is experiencing in school. At the moment the resources include all of the Shared Readers we have available so you can reread and enjoy the books together after they have been read in school. Please see the Tips for Home Reading section for advice on how to read these books with your child at home.
