

The mysterious figure.

Suddenly the eagle swooped above the figures head then flew into the distance. Then the man and his horse galloped and went as quick as a flash .They trotted though the dark land with no nature to be seen.

There were black gloomy clouds in the spooky forest then after the forest mysteriously they saw the bright light near an ancient temple.

Then the figure stopped and stared at the at the beautiful bridge that had lots of patens on it on it. Down below their was soft sand which looked like gold because the sun was reflecting.

The bridge was very narrow. At the other end of the enormous was a strong stone castle. Surrounding the castle was lots of eagles who were looking for prey with their razor sharp claws. The stone doors opened stiffly because it had not been opened for many years and after the doors closed.

Also the horse was very frightened and wined when the door was closed I was black dark.

When he came in he saw a set of spiral stair case when he and his horse he saw a spot of light. But on the horse there was a black blanket but some think on it with one breath he took the blanket off and it was a ...DEAD LADIE.

But suddenly from the ground there were the Ghost of Death.

Then he had a flash back about what happened. A lady had said to the girl would you like one of my biscuits but it was poisonous.

A voice came from the sky which said hello so the man said bring my true love back so the man said there has to be a deal now let me think kill one of the stanches I will do it .

He and horse still had a big adventure.

He came to an anormas old castle at the top of the castle was a ...

There was a gigantic monster on a big cliff so the figure followed the monster climbed the leg and stabbed it. His baggy arms got in the way but was still climbing then he got to the head and stabbed it very hard. Till he fell to the ground and he was dead.

When he and his horse got back to the ancient castle he said to the god I have killed the monster so the god said a special spell and she was alive again so they kissed and lived happily.

THE END

By Chloe

